

The Nominations Council seeks the input of the congregation as it begins the process of identifying potential new members for the class of 2019. The council is comprised of nine active members (three classes of three members, serving three year terms) elected by the congregation, two elders appointed by the Session, and the senior minister (as staff liaison).

The Nominations Council serves the congregation by recommending a slate of elders and trustee annually; recommending, separately, a slate for the Nominations Council, itself, annually; and, when necessary, recommending persons to serve on pastor nominating committees.

Members of the council serve a term of three years. Any active member of the congregation may nominate any active member of the congregation to serve on the council.

The nominees will be presented for election at the Annual Congregational Meeting in February 2017.

The current Nominations Council includes:

Suzahn Huffman-Donaldson, Chair Maureen Vandiver, Chair-elect
