Decatur Presbyterian Church Announces ‘Holy Ground’ a Series of Informal Worship Services for All Ages and Backgrounds

July 4, 5PM – Decatur Presbyterian Church will hold a series of informal worship services where everyone is invited to attend. Held on the first Sunday of each month at 5PM on the church’s Terrace Garden.

Decatur, Georgia—June 22, 2021: Decatur Presbyterian Church announced its Holy Ground series of informal worship services. The brief 45-minute service is designed for all ages and backgrounds. All members of the community are invited and welcome to attend. The service features music from the Holy Ground Band, worshipping God and faith formation activities. The services are held outside during summer months on the church’s Terrace Garden as weather permits and are moved inside for inclement weather. Please bring your own chairs for the outdoor services.

“The Holy Ground services are a wonderful mix of music and theology that appeal to all ages and backgrounds with the goal of providing meaningful experiences of worship and faith formation.” said Holy Ground Director, Drew Wilmesherr at Decatur Presbyterian Church.
