MEDITATIONS FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

"If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's." Romans 14:8

"The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?...I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage—wait for the LORD!" Psalms 27:1, 13-14

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Rev. Dr. Todd Speed

*CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalms 121)

Leader: I will lift up my eyes to the hills, from where will my help come?

People: My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Leader: The LORD will not let your foot be moved: the One who keeps you will not slumber.

People: The LORD who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

Leader: The LORD is your keeper: the LORD is your shade at your right hand.

People: The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

Leader: The LORD will keep you from all evil: God will keep your life.

People: The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on, and forevermore.

*PRAYER OF ADORATION AND PRAISE

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

OLD TESTAMENT READINGS

Psalm 103; Psalm 100

SPECIAL MUSIC

Pie Jesu (from REQUIEM)

Andrew Lloyd Webber

Holly Tate, soprano; Allison Melton, mezzo soprano

Pie Jesu, qui tollis peccata mundi dona eis requiem. Pie Jesu, qui tollis peccata mundi dona eis requiem. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi dona eis requiem. Sempiternam requiem.

Merciful Jesus, you take away the sins of the world. Grant them rest. Merciful Jesus, you take away the sins of the world. Grant them rest. O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world. Grant them eternal rest.

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We accept death as a part of the good life we are given. We are reluctant to surrender life, but we know in the end that earthly death comes to each of us. But death is no match for God. The resurrection of Jesus was God's victory over death. Death often seems to prove that life is not worth living, that our best efforts and deepest affections go for nothing. But we do not yet see the end of death. Christ has been raised from the dead, transformed, and yet the same person, and in his resurrection is the promise of ours.

We are convinced the life God wills for each of us is stronger than the death that destroys us. The glory of life everlasting exceeds our imagination but we know we shall be with Christ. So we treat death as a broken power. Its ultimate defeat is certain. In the face of death, we grieve, yet no life ends so tragically that its meaning and value are destroyed. Nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Thus, in hope, we celebrate life.

*God has told you, O mortal, what is good and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God.*
